

Dear Colleagues:

I would like to draw your attention on the ECTS 2020 abstract submission deadline on 13 January 2020 that is now approaching.

Please, see below the congress details. I would greatly appreciate if you could disseminate this announcement to the members of your national societies and invite them to submit their abstracts and case reports at <https://www.ects2020.org/abstracts/>. Please note that presenting authors are eligible for New Investigators awards and travel grants. Information can be found at <https://www.ects2020.org/abstracts/grants-awards/>. Furthermore, delegates from your countries can register to the congress at a special discounted fee. Information is available at <https://www.ects2020.org/registration/>.

Thank you very much for your commitment with the ECTS. I hope to seeing you in Marseille.

Best regards,

Anna Teti
ECTS President
